The Secretary to the Commissioner of Excise,
M a d r a s.

S i r,

Abkari Opening of a ganja shop at Nilavar, Udipi Taluk--tentatively for one year--report submitted.

With a view to counteract the smuggling of Mysore ganja -- into the ranges of Udipi circle which is reported to be going on on a considerable scale, the Assistant Commissioner of Excise, -- Cannanore suggested in the interests of ganja revenue the opening of a new ganja shop in the Udipi circle. In consultation -- with the Excise Inspector, Udipi circle, it has been resolved to open tentatively for a year from 1st April 1926 a ganja -- shop in any unobjectionable site at Kunjal in Nilavar village of Udipi Taluk. This proposal was published in the South -- Kanara District Gazette for August 1925, and persons having any objections to the proposal were requested to present them before the Tahsildar of Udipi Taluk on or before the 25th of September 1925. The Tahsildar of Udipi reports that no objections have -- been received in response to the notice published in the -- village.. I therefore suggest that the shop may be tentatively sanctioned for the lease 26--27 with effect from 1st April 1926.

Your obedient servant,

For Collector.
